The Democracy of the Fifth Congressional district will meet in delegate Convention, at Martinsville, Indiana, on the 2d day of June, 1880, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of selecting a candidate to represent the district in the next Congress.

W. E. DITTMORE, Chair'n.

Candidates are now busy repairing fences in different townships. Each one is ahead, and sure to be nominated.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Syracuse (N. Y.) Daily Courier this morning, containing an anti-Tilden boom.

Carr and Cooper seem to be the object of attack of the sleuth-hounds of the Republican party—perhaps because they are feared.

The slimy communication in the Indianapolis Journal, this morning, bears the unquestionable marks of "Metropolitan features of journalism."

The total majority for the first amendment was 19,749; for the other six the majority ranges from 25,000 to 30,000. This gives Captain Morgan the rooster.

The DEMOCRAT is not running booms in the interest of any candidates. Its choice is the choice of the Democratic nominating conventions. Let the people make the nominations, and the DEMOCRAT will cheerfully support them.

Bro. Joe need not try to shift any part of his personal quarrel with Mr. Kraning upon the DEMOCRAT. The DEMOCRAT made no "reckless charges," and the statements to this effect are untrue. Bro. Joe to the contrary notwithstanding. Nor did the DEMOCRAT issue any secret circulars; nor did it make any attack on Republican candidates. The fact that Bro. Joe's organ got a $10,000 libel suit on its hands by publishing an attack on Mr. Haggerty, Democratic candidate for city marshal, on the eve of the last election, may explain why this fatherless circular was issued, and for Bro. Joe to try to shift any part of the responsibility upon the DEMOCRAT is ungentlemanly and mean. Why were the dates punched out of the circular if it did not bear a lie on its face?

Bro. Joe, in his reply to Kraning's open letter in yesterday's Eve Rep., started out by saying:

"This was first offered to the DEMOCRAT, but that paper refused to publish it."

This is true, Bro. Joe did come to the DEMOCRAT yesterday, in the absence of the proprietor, and asked to have it published, but went away without seeing the proprietor. He then sent his private secretary to the court-house, and asked the proprietor of the DEMOCRAT to publish his reply, and was refused.

The DEMOCRAT is under no obligations to Bro. Joe or the Republican party. The DEMOCRAT made no attack on Bro. Joe, false or true, consequently has nothing to take back or straighten up—noting to apologize for.

The attack made upon Mr. Kraning, whether true or false, was cowardly and mean, coming as it did, in an assassin-like manner, upon an old man who was seriously ill. A midnight circular without an author on the eve of the election when too late to reply, was it an honest motive that prompted such a charge? If so, why did not Bro. Joe attach his name? No one knew who was the father of the midnight circular, with the "hole punched out," until Bro. Joe chose to father, after the election was over. The people had then answered the charges and vindicated Mr. Kraning. Had Bro. Joe stopped there no one would ever know who was the author of the circular. He wrote a card, acknowledging the paternity of the bastard child. This he also sent to the DEMOCRAT and asked to have it published, which was refused.

In further speaking of this matter, we say in all candor that Bro. Joe has a great amount of cheek to assume to ask the DEMOCRAT to publish his "open letters and secret circulars," and the spirit that prompted him to do so must have been the same that prompted the writing of the midnight circular. His own paper, the Eve Rep., was laughing when he made both requests. If Bro. Joe imagines he is after a gudgeon, he will soon learn his mistake. We have had a little experience with "our enemies." We haven't paid out several hundred dollars to no profit, in a political standpoint. Kraning didn't ask the Eve Rep. to publish his card. Yet it was there where the first assault was made on him, by any authority. Mr. Kraning had a right to ask the Eve Rep. to publish his reply, because it had published the attack—false or true. But the DEMOCRAT had not, consequently the assumption of Bro. Joe to ask such a favor is only accounted for when we take into consideration the wonderful amount of cheek he has.

If Bro. Joe was serious and in good faith in making these requests, then it can only be accounted for on the theory of the large circulation of the DEMOCRAT over the Republican, and, if not in good faith, it pulls aside the hypocritical mask. He carries the impression of the public, by the manner in which he speaks of the DEMOCRAT, refusal to publish his trash, is such as to lead the unwary reader to the conclusion that the DEMOCRAT had made a false attack upon him and then refused to publish a faithful reply.

We have no interest in the questions at issue between Bro. Joe and Mr. Kraning. It is personal matter between them. The people have known more of this matter than we do, and we leave the matter with them.

The DEMOCRAT is a newspaper, and does not expect to devote its space to personal quarrels, within its own or its friends' behalf.

However, after thinking this matter all over, we have concluded that Bro. Joe was excusable, on the grounds that to have it published in the DEMOCRAT was really the only way to get it before all the reading public. We forgive thy cheek, Bro. Joe, Bro. Joe.

The Star and Courier, at Madison, are about to inaugurate another bitter fight between the two papers. As they are both Republican, and we are about forty miles from the seat of war, with several heavy upgrades interspersed, we say let the good work go on. Fight it out, and quit your foolishness. Up this way we wag along without any such nonsense.

BOYS' HILL.

Plowing for corn is the order of the day.

Brother Price preached to quite a crowded house last Sunday; and how about those boys who left their original church and smoked.

Mrs. Wm. Jett was in our midst last Sunday, visiting friends.

Henry Dipper has had a new fly-wheel put in his mill.

Several of our young folks spent Sunday at Esq. Abbott's. They say they had a splendid time.

Mr. Tazze is with us again, he couldn't stay away from the boys.

Several Columbus sportsmen were in our neighborhood hunting last Tuesday.

Singing at the brick school-house has been put off for three weeks.

Dick Conn was in our midst last Sunday eve.

Sunday-school was organized at the chapel last Sunday, with the following officers: Superintendent Harper Sheldy; asst. supt., Mrs. B. Strawn; Secy., Oscar Elliott; treasurer, John Smith; librarian, Ralph Hayes; asst. Katie Thompson. We have a prospect for a good Sunday school, and we will if the parents take sufficient interest in it.

A Railway up the Volcano of Vesuvius.

[Scientific American.]

The railway for the ascent of Vesuvius is now finished. It is 900 meters in length and will enable tourists to ascend by it to the edge of the crater. The line has been constructed with great care upon a solid pavement, and it is believed to be perfectly secure from all incursions of lava.

The mode of traction, says the Engineer, is by two steel ropes put in movement by a steam engine at the foot of the cone. The wheels of the carriages are so made as to be free from any danger of leaving the rails, besides which each carriage is furnished with an exceedingly powerful automatic brake, which, should the rope by any chance break, will stop the train almost instantaneously. One of the chief difficulties of the undertaking was the water supply, but that has been obviated by the formation of two very large reservoirs, one at the station, and the other near the observatory.

The "Western Ignorance."

[Quincy Modern Argosy.]

If any of our friends up East imagine that the West is not a reading people, let them reflect that every day in the year, there passes through the Chicago postoffice over 100,000 pounds of mail matter, and that Illinois handles more letters and papers than any other state in the Union outside of New York.

So Flurried, Etc.

"Does the court understand you to say, Mr. Jones, that you saw the editor of the Anger of Freedom intoxicated?" Not at all sir; I merely said that I had seen him frequently so flurried in his mind that he would undertake to cut out copy with the snuffers—that's all."

The United States contain a population of fifty million souls. Perhaps two-thirds of that number have used 1 or more bottles of Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup, where they have had a bad cold, or Chronic or hacking Cough or any of the numerous Lung Complaints to which the human family is heir. Out of this vast number of bottles sold there has been, we must own, two bottles returned. Please take notice, reader, two bottles that have not given satisfaction but millions that have used it with good results. When buying medicines for the family always ask for Dr. Marshall's Lung Syrup. Sold by apical Hogue & Herzsch.

The Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Michigan.

Will send their celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts to the afflicted upon 30 days trial. Speedy cures guaranteed. They mean what they say. Write to them at once.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.
REV. SYLVANUS BOBBINS writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing, indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of their child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. djan10wdec26(5)

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS
